

The Black Mzungu

Testimonials

Fresh voice, engaging subject, arresting realities
---Mary Ann Mitchell (Michigan, USA)

A reminder of the luxuries of first world living through an open and honest telling of leaving home, and the familiar, to start a new life halfway across the world, definitely worth reading.
— Leanna Abdelmaged (Abu Dhabi, UAE)

Charming, funny, heart-warming and interesting. This book is a very enjoyable read!
---Karen Wentland (Ohio, USA)

It was very interesting to see this part of Africa through the eyes of an American expat. There is rich detail about the people, animals and surroundings which is fascinating. Osborne is not shy in sharing her experiences: good, bad, ugly and beautiful.
